JOIN US FOR A PARISH CELEBRATION!

Our parish has good reason to celebrate as we welcome one of our long-time parishioners, Scott Harris, to the permanent diaconate. Scott will be the new deacon at our parish after he is ordained on May 19th at 10AM at the Cathedral downtown.

Let's join in the celebration by attending his ordination! It is open to the public and we will be sponsoring (school) bus rides to and from the Cathedral for those who would prefer not to drive. Call the parish office at 315-488-3139 to reserve a spot on the bus.

Happy Third Sunday of Easter! This Sunday we continue to hear from the gospel accounts of Jesus' resurrection and appearance to the disciples. What does this mean for us? And what is the general resurrection? Here is what the Compendium of the Catechism of the Catholic Church (from the Vatican website) has to say:

203. What is meant by the "resurrection of the body"?

This means that the definitive state of man will not be one in which his spiritual soul is separated from his body. Even our mortal bodies will one day come to life again.

204. What is the relationship between the Resurrection of Christ and our resurrection?

Just as Christ is truly risen from the dead and now lives forever, so he himself will raise everyone on the last day with an incorruptible body: "Those who have done good will rise to the resurrection of life and those who have done evil to the resurrection of condemnation" (John 5:29).

205. What happens to our body and our soul after death?

After death, which is the separation of the body and the soul, the body becomes corrupt while the soul, which is immortal, goes to meet the judgment of God and awaits its reunion with the body when it will rise transformed at the time of the return of the Lord. How the resurrection of the body will come about exceeds the possibilities of our imagination and understanding.

206. What does it mean to die in Christ Jesus?

Dying in Christ Jesus means to die in the state of God's grace without any mortal sin. A believer in Christ, following his example, is thus able to transform his own death into an act of obedience and love for the Father. "This saying is sure: if we have died with him, we will also live with him" (2 Timothy 2:11).

WORDS OF POPE FRANCIS

IN

THE YEAR OF THE FAMILY

“As Bishop of Buenos Aires,
 I sensed the feeling of orphanhood that children are experiencing today, and I often asked fathers if they played with their children,
 if they had the courage and love to spend time
 with their kids.”

Over the next few weeks, we would like to help our pantry clients with their spring cleaning. Household cleaning items, paper products among many other things, cannot be purchased with a benefit card. So many of the things that we take for granted are not always in the budget for others. But, as always, we can make a difference with your help. The items needed are:

plastic pails
household cleaners such as ajax liquid Mr. Clean, lysol windex floor cleaner sponges paper towels
God bless you for all that you do, so that we can do for others.

Blessings,
Bill & Anne
