Happy Easter! One of the things required of priests by Church law, is that we take a retreat every year. The retreat allows us to grow in our relationship with Jesus Christ, the High Priest. As you read this, I will have completed my 5-day retreat at St. Joseph's Abbey in Spence, MA. The abbey is located about an hour or so west of Boston in the beautiful countryside of Massachusetts. The monks at the abbey pray around the clock and have given me the opportunity to join them for their prayers, Mass, and spiritual direction. Please know that you were in my prayers throughout the retreat!

This weekend is Divine Mercy Sunday. Let's be sure to pray asking God to bless all of us and the whole world with His Divine Mercy!

Happy Easter, Fr. Manno

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

Follow the Lord's words where He appeals to each one of us: "Could you not watch one hour with Me?" This hour may be spent reading scripture, praying the rosary, speaking heart to heart with Jesus, or simply enjoying the sweet peace of being with the One who loves us the most. Please consider joining our 24/7 ministry. Call Tom Colabufo at 487-8377.

A Note from Father Jason on the Indulgence to be Received on Divine Mercy Sunday:

I would like to share some information from the Holy See about how to gain the indulgence that many seek on Divine Mercy Sunday, which is the Second Sunday after Easter. There was some confusion last year about the necessary requirements for the receiving of the indulgence on Divine Mercy Sunday. Many thought that in order to receive the grace of the indulgence they needed to receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation the weekend of Divine Mercy Sunday. This is a misunderstanding. Please read the notes below taken from the Apostolic Penitentiary, which is an office attached to the Holy See, regarding the gaining of indulgences. You will notice that it clearly spells out that in order to gain the indulgence you only need to receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation within 20 days of the particular day on which you seek the indulgence. Which means that if you want to confession 20 days before or 20 days after, while fulfilling the other requirements, then you can obtain the indulgence. I hope this is helpful, so that we can avoid the practice of going to confession to "obtain the grace" without actually confessing sins in the confessional. Please read the notes below from the Vatican:

A plenary indulgence can be gained only once a day. In order to obtain it, the faithful must, in addition to being in the state of grace: have the interior disposition of complete detachment from sin, even venial sin; have sacramentally confessed their sins; receive the Holy Eucharist; pray for the intentions of the Supreme Pontiff.

It is appropriate, but not necessary, that the sacramental Confession and especially Holy Communion and the prayer for the Pope's intentions take place on the same day that the indulgenced work is performed; but it is sufficient that these sacred rites and prayers be carried out within several days (about 20) before or after the indulgenced act. Prayer for the Pope's intentions is left to the choice of the faithful, but an "Our Father" and a "Hail Mary" are suggested. One sacramental Confession suffices for several plenary indulgences, but a separate Holy Communion and a separate prayer for the Holy Father's intentions are required for each plenary indulgence. Indulgences can always be applied either to oneself or to the souls of the deceased, but they cannot be applied to other persons living on earth.

HOLY FAMILY BASKETBALL

I have been involved with the Holy Family CYO Basketball Program for 49 years and have decided to step down as the Athletic Director. I want to thank my wife and children for all of their support, as well as our pastors for their trust to run the sports program, parents for allowing their children to be in our program, and the kids for their commitment. My replacement is Matt Cerio. He has been involved with other sports programs and is an excellent choice. I still plan to be involved in other groups at Holy Family.
