Catholic Couples Fellowship will be meeting this Thursday at 7:00pm in the Church to offer the Novena to the Holy Family as we begin this New Year. Come out with your special someone to this evening of prayer, quiet, and rest.

PASTOR'S NOTES

Dear Friends,

As we begin this new year and, in a sense close out the Christmas season (Monday is the last day of the Christmas season), I want to take the opportunity to thank the many people who helped to make our Christmas so special here at Holy Family!

First of all a big "thank you" to our parish staff that works day in and day out to see that our needs are met and things are taken care of on our campus. All that is done here could not be done without their support and assistance. A special thanks to Ron and Steve Burns for making sure our parking lots and sidewalks are clear. This is no easy task and they are always ready to take on all of the sleet, freezing rain, and snow that may come our way. Thank you to Rob Morey, all of our musicians, cantors, and all music ministers. The music at Christmas was beautiful and always helps us to pray with great fervor and devotion. Thanks go out to Jack Gardner and the Voices of Faith Choir for their concert in early December, which sets the tone for the season! Thank you to our school community for the beautiful Epiphany Concert this past Friday night. Our kids are so gifted and talented! Thank you the Knights of Columbus for sponsoring the Keep Christ in Christmas banner and the new nativity set on West Genesee Street. We received many compliments for the great witness of the Holy Family on Genesee Street! Thank you to all of our liturgical ministers, our ushers, lectors, Eucharistic Ministers, altar servers, and our money counters (thanks be to God for this group that works diligently to make sure our collections are counted and deposited in a timely manner). Thank you to our seminarian, James Buttner, who was home on break and assisted us at Mass. It is a real blessing to have a seminarian in our parish and we offer continued prayers for James and all those discerning a call to priesthood or religious life. Our Masses were beautiful due to your goodness and attention to detail! Special thanks to all who helped decorate and care for our Christmas plants – thanks go out to the Knights of Columbus, Sam Rao Florist (Rick, at Rao, always does a beautiful job with our plants and arrangements), Bev Griffin, Sue Kuppel and the many volunteers that help with caring for our church at Christmas. To all of our volunteers, thank you! Your goodness and generosity is astounding. Thanks to Holy Family Outreach and our director Bridget Buttner. Our Outreach group did so much great work to feed so many families and make sure they had gifts at Christmas. They had special assistance from our CYO Basketball players so we thank them for their service! Thank you to our Hospitality Committee for all their hard work in helping with our Advent Mission and celebrating the feast of the Holy Family! They make sure everyone feels welcome! Thank you to all of our parishioners. Thank you for sharing your time, talents and treasure is truly an amazing witness to your goodness and generosity, thank you!

Last but not least, I want to thank our pastoral team here at Holy Family, and, by team, I mean Fr. Jason and Deacon Bob. The three of us managed to maintain the same schedule as in past years, the only difference is that in past years there were two additional priests to assist. As you can imagine it is not easy to carry out seven Christmas Masses, then a full week of Masses and funerals and then right back into another weekend of Masses. It was not easy and we sacrificed family time and rest so that we could do our best to accommodate our parish. I offer my sincerest apologies to those disappointed that there was no Saturday morning Mass on December 31 or a 4:00 PM on Sunday, January 1. I can only pray that those disappointed by this will understand that, as pastor, not only do I have to care for the souls of our faithful people, but I have to worry and care about the souls and health and well-being of our priests and deacon. I would hope the last thing we would want to see is one of our priests or deacon sick or burnt out...and it happens. So, let's continue to pray for each other with understanding, patience, and with charitable hearts.

Please know in my list of gratitude, I did not intend to leave anyone out, if there was someone I missed, please know my heart is full of love and gratitude! I wish all of you a blessed Christmas and a happy, holy, New Year!

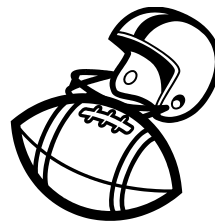

Peace and all good things, Fr. Manno

A note of gratitude from a Food Pantry guest:
“We would like to thank you and all the families who helped make our holidays a little brighter. Gifts are nice but it’s what’s in your heart that matters! Thank you for giving us a lovely meal.

Another thank you message:
I am just calling to thank the Church, and you, and all the kids that helped. Thank you for all the gifts. My granddaughter loved them. They fit perfect. It was a good Christmas. I just want to thank you and I appreciate it. God Bless and Thank you.

My favorite scripture is Galatians 5:22-23. The fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control. Against such there is no law. Holy Family truly embodies the fruitage of the spirit!”

PANTRY NEEDS: canned fruit, canned hash, ravioli, pasta/rice sides.

POPE FRANCIS SPEAKS TO OUR HEARTS

WE ARE THE SIMPLE INSTRUMENTS OF GOD

It is urgently necessary to find new forms and new ways to ensure that God's grace may touch the heart of every man and of every woman and lead them to Him. We are all simple but important instruments of His; we have not received the gift that it can illumine a great many of our brethren on their journey.

A FAMILY PERSPECTIVE:

Today's gospel tells us "all Jerusalem" was upset because "King Herod was deeply troubled." A similar ripple effect happens in families; one person's attitude can affect the whole family. If you want a peaceful and joyful home, it must start with you. Be peaceful and joyful!

BEREAVEMENT

God's Word is full of promises and blessings with unsurpassed power and beauty. Messages of comfort, hope and encouragement from the Scriptures will bless you and remind you of God's presence throughout each day.

MAY HE REST IN PEACE

Paul Digiulio

COMING SOON FOR HOLY FAMILYPARISHIONERS!

As you may know, last year we switched to a new database.

Soon we will be rolling out a component called "My Own Church". It allows you to access your parishioner information, keep track of your donations, switch your donations to electronic giving, sign up for Faith Formation, pay for it on line and much more! It will also allow you to receive the informative and spiritual emails that Fr. Manno will begin sending to parishioners in the new year! But we need your help!

Of the 3000+ parishioners we have, our database has approximately 1500 correct email addresses! Many people did not participate in the census update requests. Please provide us with your family email address.

How, you ask? You can call the Parish Offices, write your email address on your donation envelope and drop it in the collection, or email us at hfamily@twcny.rr.com.

There are a lot of great things coming up in 2017! Be sure you don't miss a thing! Send us your email address today!

New Weekly Envelope Vendor

We have selected a new vendor to provide our weekly contribution envelopes. The new envelopes will begin the weekend of January 8. With any transition there may be oversights. Please contact the parish office with any questions.
