Congratulations, Sue Kuppel and Sheila Austin

Sincere and heartfelt congratulations are offered to two of our Holy Family parishioners, Sue Kuppel and Sheila Austin as they were honored by the Sun Auto Group's, 40 Across 40 Unsung Heroes. Sun Auto Group honored 40 individuals in Central New York for their hard work and commitment to our local community. Sue Kuppel was honored for all that she does here at Holy Family with our food pantry, outreach, funeral luncheons, and so much more. Holy Family is blessed by her service. Sheila Austin was honored for her work as the Director of the Emmaus Ministry in Syracuse. Each day Emmaus Ministry provides meals to people on the south side, they provide haircuts to those in need, shower and laundry facilities for families in need, and they work diligently to meet the needs of people in that area of Syracuse and beyond. Congratulations to Sue and Sheila and may God continue to grant success to all that you do in His name.

Thank you Deano Procopio

For his Eagle Scout project Deano Procopio organized and carried out the difficult task of putting new plantings on each side of the Chapel Drive door (the main door) of the church. Holy Family is so grateful that Deano would consider beautifying the church for his Eagle Scout project. He organized a group of workers and they did a splendid job of clearing out some of old shrubs and planting new ones. Their work makes God's house look warm, welcoming, and inviting. Thank you Deano and congratulations on achieving the rank of Eagle Scout.

MASS OF REMEMBRANCE

MONDAY NOVEMBER 4 @ 6:30PM

Each year we remember those in our parish who have passed away the past year - from September 1, 2018 thru August 31, 2019. All parishioners are invited to attend and join us in remembering all our deceased loved ones. A reception will follow immediately after Mass.

Display Case

The display case in the front vestibule has art work and projects from Mrs. Brown's Preschool class. The children meet on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, and have been learning about Fall and Halloween. They have been focusing on the uniqueness and differences we all have, and how God created everyone and everything to be special. Two books that helped teach these concepts include "Spookly, the Square Pumpkin" and "The Pumpkin Patch Parable".

Holy Family School has a part-time position as a cafeteria assistant in the school cafeteria from 10:00 am - 1:00 pm M-F. Must have taken the Safe Environment Course from the Diocese, and have basic cooking skills. Candidate must also be able to work well with others and with children. Please send resume to Sr. Christina Marie Luczynski@syrdiocese.org or to Holy Family School at 130 Chapel Drive, Syracuse, NY 13219

Hospitality Ministry*HOSPITALITY MINISTRY

We welcome you to bring in a photo of a loved one who has passed away to our Church. The photos will be on display around the church in November. Bring in a copy of the photo in an inexpensive dollar store frame and leave the photo by the Cross in the Gathering Space. It doesn't matter if your loved one passed this year or in years past—as your HOLY FAMILY—we remember.

VETERANS DAY—Our thanks just isn't enough for the service our men and women in the Armed Forces have given for us and our country now and in the past. Plastic soldiers will be available the weekend before Veterans Day in the Gathering Space. Please take one—put it by your sink—say a little prayer for our service men and women and their families every time you see the little soldier.

A MONTH OF THANKS—In November, blank Thank You cards will be in our Gathering Space. Please help yourself to a note or two—send a thank you to someone—your mom, your dad, your kids, our Priests, the Music Ministry, a teacher, a neighbor, a friend. Handwritten notes are such a treasure—an unexpected thank you brings such joy.
