LITURGY UPDATE

Dc. Bob will preach September 17 & 18.

It was a great blessing for us to welcome Bishop Cunningham to our parish on Wednesday to celebrate the opening school Mass of the Holy Spirit. It was a joyous celebration and a great start to our school year. Please keep our administration, faculty, staff and students in your prayers. Please pray for all administrators, teachers, staff members, and students in our public school systems as well. May all of us grow in wisdom and holiness throughout this coming year and always.

As you know communication is essential in any relationship, organization, or institution. Believe it or not, the most effective way for a pastor or parish community to communicate is still by way of the weekly bulletin. Oftentimes, people will say to me that they only read the first few pages to “see what’s going on” and “to see how much money was collected the previous week.” While I know this is something most of us do, I would invite you to look through the bulletin to read about and enjoy all that is in the bulletin. So, please look through our bulletin for all information pertaining to Holy Family Church and Holy Family School. In addition to the bulletin, please visit our parish website at www.holyfamilysyr.org (hint – the bulletin is usually posted on Friday before the weekend). Our website has much information about our parish and activities. If you are so inclined, please like us on Facebook, where we offer much of what is taking place and a variety of other information on a daily basis.

This weekend you will notice a minor change as well when it comes to our announcements at Mass. Instead of the cantor doing them in the beginning, the priest saying the Mass will do the announcements after the closing prayer. Since we typically do some announcements at that time, it just makes sense for us to do all of the announcements at that time.

As always, thank you for your great goodness to Holy Family Church. I am moved and inspired by the generosity of our parish community. Know of my daily prayers for all of you, your families. Please keep me in your prayers as well.

Thanks,
Fr. Manno

A FAMILY PERSPECTIVE:

Parents are like that shepherd in today’s gospel for they don’t give up and can’t rest if one of their children has wandered away. A parent’s persistent love provides a glimpse of the unconditional love for each of us by God, Our Father. A parent is a window to the Divine.
