PASTOR'S NOTES

Dear Friends,

I have been watching, with interest and sadness, the aftermath of Hurricane Harvey along the Gulf Coast of Texas. It saddens me that so many people have been impacted, that lives have been lost, homes have been flooded, and even churches practically ruined by the hurricane. It has moved me to prayer. This past Thursday we prayed the Rosary in church for the people of Texas and all they are going through. Please, please keep them in your prayers. Many of you have been asking about a collection to help aid in the relief. There will be a second collection NEXT WEEKEND. This money will be sent directly to the Archdiocese of Galveston-Houston to aid in their efforts to assist people. One of the things that inspires me in the midst of tragedy, is that we belong to this great nation, where people will do all that they can to help others. I watched as people from across the north and south mobilized to assist in the relief efforts. While we cannot be there physically, let's pray for all those people who are there and offer the support of our prayers and financial resources to help those in need.

This weekend we wish all of our young people well as they prepare to head back to school. To all teachers, administrators, and school staff members – we wish you well too. I pray this is a blessed year for all called to the ministry of passing knowledge on to our young people. Please keep in prayer everyone from Holy Family School as they kick off another year! We are one of 17 grammar schools in the Diocese of Syracuse and it is a blessing to have a school here on campus. Please pray for our principal, Sr. Christina Marie and all of our faculty and staff. They work hard each day to teach our children and help them to know, love, and serve our Lord. This year we will have 260 young people in our pre-k-6 grade. Please pray for them and their families that through the gift of Catholic education they will continue to grow in wisdom and holiness.

Lastly, I hope you have a blessed Labor Day. For all who labor, I hope this day gives you a few moments of rest and peace. Pray for all the men and women who labor each day to uphold our freedom as a nation – all who serve in our armed forces. I pray God blesses their labor and allows them times of rest!

Blessings, Fr. Manno

SECOND COLLECTION NEXT WEEKEND

There will be a second collection next weekend to assist in the relief efforts of hurricane Harvey. Checks can be made out directly to Holy Family and then we will send a check directly the Archdiocese of Galveston-Houston. Thank you for your generosity and support.

4. Are already Catholic or non-Catholic Christians and simply desire to learn more about the good news of our Lord Jesus Christ.
