

Dear Friends,

A sincere and heartfelt congratulations are extended to the newly ordained, Father Malachi Clark! Yesterday was a glorious day at the Cathedral as we welcomed Fr. Clark as the newest and youngest priest of the Diocese of Syracuse. This is the culmination of ten years of formation and preparation for the priesthood.

This afternoon I will be at Saints John and Andrew Church in Binghamton as Fr. Clark celebrates his first Mass. This is always a graced occasion and I am blessed to be there and represent all of Holy Family!

We have been blessed to be part of Fr. Clark's journey to the priesthood as he did his Pastoral Year with us and, when home from the seminary on break, he would stay at Holy Family and help us with our liturgies. We even had the opportunity to walk through him and pray for him in his battle with cancer. Thanks be to God that is behind him now and we pray that God has all good things in store for him as he begins his priestly ministry.

Fr. Clark will be with us next weekend and he will preside at the 10:30 AM Mass. We look forward to having him back with us for the weekend! Let's pray that the Holy Family of Nazareth will continue to watch over him and bless him with zeal for his priestly ministry!

Blessings,
Father Manno
