PASTOR'S NOTES

Dear Friends,

I hope your Lent is off to a great start and you have been able to hold off the temptation to give into those things that you may have sacrificed. This is such a beautiful season and I pray that it is a season that gets us ready for the glory of Easter.

On Tuesday, February 27, we will have a Lenten Penance Service at 6:30 PM in church. This is done in conjunction with St. Joe's in Camillus. There will be visiting priests from throughout the area to hear your confession. I hope you will see this as an opportunity for God's forgiveness and grace.

On Saturday, March 10 from 4-9 PM we have our annual Irish Hooley. The Hooley is our opportunity to raise money for scholarship assistance at our school. All are welcome to attend.

On Saturday, March 10 – Tuesday, March 13 we have our Lenten Mission with Fr. Fran Pompei, OFM. Fr. Pompei will preach all of the weekend Masses and then give talks Monday and Tuesday nights. Please put this on your calendar as a great opportunity for growth during Lent.

In addition to my responsibilities here, I am the Director of Seminarian Formation for the Diocese of Syracuse. Each semester I have to go to the seminaries we use and meet with our seminarians to monitor their progress in their preparation for the priesthood. This week I will be in Washington, DC and Baltimore, MD from Wednesday, February 28 – Friday, March 2. In March I will travel to the seminary in New York City (March 14/15) and the seminary in Boston (March 19/20). It is always a joy to spend some time with our seminarians and track their progress towards priesthood.

Speaking of seminarians, please keep James Buttner, our parish seminarian in your prayers. He is doing very well at The Catholic University of America. Keep Malachi in your prayers. He is finishing up his chemotherapy, which we are all happy about. Shortly after he finishes, they will do some scans to see where everything is at and we hope he will be back here in a few weeks.

Know of my prayers for a blessed Lent.

Blessings, Fr. Manno

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

By coming to adoration we are handing Jesus the keys to our hearts. We need only to give Him the opening and He will do the rest by allowing the rays of His love and grace to bathe our souls in the light of His presence. If we can pull away from the busyness and distractions of life and just sit at His feet, He will lead us. Please choose a dedicated hour and join our ministry. Call Tom Colabufo @ 315-487-8377.

BE PRUDENT AND CONSIDERATE

Since we are in the midst of the flu season, it is respectfully requested that if you feel sick or have a cough, you refrain from receiving the Precious Blood of our Lord from the Chalice. In addition, at the sign of peace, simply wave to others. Do not engage in shaking hands and risking the spread of any germs. Always remember that if you are really sick, you should stay home and rest and recover. The Lord understands your absence during times of illness. Thank you for your understanding and consideration.

THE YEAR OF THE FAMILY

“Children bring life, cheerfulness, hope, also troubles.

But such is life. Certainly, they also bring worries...;

but better a society with these worries and these problems, than a sad, grey society because it is without children!”

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

Do you want to share some of your time with others during Lent? Call Pastoral Care to volunteer in the areas of visiting the homebound or bringing someone to Mass on the weekends. Thank you for considering these works of mercy. Call Pastoral Care: 315-488-3139 ext. 107 (Sr. Caryn).

A FAMILY PERSPECTIVE:

The apostles thought they knew Jesus, but when He changed in front of them at the Transfiguration they were "afraid." In families, we cannot freeze relationships because change and growth are inevitable. Children grow up, parents grow old and spouses change. Transfigurations are all around us and within us. Relationships can only grow when we embrace the new and let go of the old.
