Dear Friends,

Wow, there is a lot happening at Holy Family as we go through the fall months! Please be sure to read the bulletin for information on all events here at Holy Family. Thank you for your goodness and attentiveness to all that we do and all we have taking place at our parish. There are a few things I would like to highlight for you for your planning purposes.

First, Holy Family School is working diligently on their apple pies for their upcoming apple pie sale. The pie sale will be November 17/18 (with more information to come). No need to bake pies, when you can let someone else do all of the work for you! Please support our school pie sale. In addition, Holy Family is in need of a new playground. The current playground is deteriorating and is made of wood, which can lead (and often does) to splinters and so on. On the weekend of November 4 and 5 there will be a second collection to support this effort for our parish. Your generosity and support of our kids is appreciated.

Second, the parish offices are coming along. The expected finish date is November 1st. We are now in the finishing phase of the project. I cannot wait for you to see what it looks like. This was much needed. Thank you for your ongoing support and patience.

Third, Holy Family Parish Outreach is gearing up for their Thanksgiving and Christmas food distributions. Do you know that we have over 100 families in the 13219 zip code that come to Holy Family for food at the holidays? I am so grateful to Bill and Anne Ganey and our many volunteers that make sure our neighbors are cared for and fed at the holidays and throughout the year. Your goodness to our pantry is so needed and much appreciated.

Lastly, thank you for the many birthday greetings and wishes. This past Tuesday, I turned 42. As I was getting the remaining hairs cut that I have, I couldn't help but see a lot of grey fall to the floor! I am most grateful to God for the gift of another year of life and all the possibilities and potential that lies ahead! I am grateful to God that He chose me to be a priest and the fact that I get to serve Him at this great parish! Know of my prayers for all of you!

Blessings, Fr. Manno

2017 WHITE MASS

The St. Marianne Cope Guild of the Catholic Medical Association cordially invites all HEALTH CARE WORKERS to a special White Mass on Sunday, October 29, 2017. It will be held at the beautifully renovated Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception and celebrated by Bishop Cunningham. Mass is at 12:00 noon with reception to follow. If you work in the medical field, please join us and come learn what the Catholic Medical Association is all about. Inquiries to Maria Araujo at 315-254-6263 or John O'Brien at 315-243-9761.

Educators have a special ministry that is a gift from God. The educator in the Catholic school has a special calling: It is a calling to recognize Jesus in each and every student, parent and person we encounter. It is a calling to help others recognize the God-created dignity of every human person. We are also in the business of establishing Christ-centered relationships with each other and everyone in the educational process so that we all can achieve the highest and best according to our gifts and talents.

Relationships are a two-way street. They encompass giving and receiving, and they encompass stewardship. They involve acknowledging individual differences and reaching and teaching each person in his/her own language in its largest sense. We are all called to share our heritage and traditions, thereby enriching the whole school community.

Called to be role models, we set the tone and the policy for our students. This means the challenging task of overcoming our own prejudices and biases and the prejudices and biases that others might have toward us. This also means that, as educators, we must attend to relationships among ourselves. Others watch how we treat each other. As we teach, we are called to invite and welcome warmly all who come to us. Many people see our school as "the Catholic Church." We are often judged as "the Catholic Church," not as a specific school.

As educators, and this includes parents who are the first educators of their children, we, as well as you, are called to catechize, to pray, to preach, to teach, to speak, to listen, and to share faith and spirituality with all those whom we meet each day. Reflect on the following question this week:

What kind of relationships / attitudes am I promoting in my classroom, my school, my family, my community?

Blessings,

Sr. Christina Marie Luczynski, CSSF

BETHLEHEM WOOD CARVINGS

For centuries the Christian Bethlehem district have earned a living by carving olive wood religious art to sell it to visiting pilgrims to the holy land. Fewer pilgrims are journeying the holy land today making it difficult for Christian artisans to support their families by dignified work of their hands in the land of Christ's birth. Because of the lack of work, there has ben a dramatic rise in Christian emigration from the holy land. Now less than 2% of the population of the holy land is Christian. Since the start of its' mission, Bethlehem Wood Carving has helped hundreds of struggling families. We will be selling these beautiful pieces next weekend, October 21 & 22, in the gathering space. Your purchase will make a difference in the lives of many Christian families. All major credit cards accepted.
