PASTOR'S NOTES

Dear Friends,

I think you will agree with me when I say that the staff at Holy Family Church is made up of gifted and talented people who help us day in and day out to carry out the work of spreading the Gospel. Our priests, deacon, religious sisters, and lay staff work diligently to make sure our needs are met, things are taken care of, maintenance is done, and ensure that everything flows smoothly...we couldn't do it without them!

I realized recently that over half of the people that make up our staff are new within the past two years (including a new pastor and a new school principal). That's a lot of new people. Sometimes with new faces come new ideas, new ways of looking at things and new ways of carrying out ministry. I can speak on behalf of the "newbies" when I say thank you for your warm welcome and goodness. From time to time, we may bring new ideas, energy and enthusiasm to the parish. While it may be new and different, I am thankful for your support of all that is done. I am grateful to our "veteran staff members" who are able to impart practical wisdom and help us to stay grounded in our rich heritage while moving forward at the same time. Thank you for all the support and encouragement you give to all of us who work here to serve you and the needs of our parish. The ability to work at Holy Family is not an entitlement, but a real gift and blessing.

I ask for your continued support and collaboration. Every time we gather as a staff we pray for all of you and for all the families we serve at Holy Family and beyond. Please keep us in your prayers as well. Pray for us that we will never tire of the ministries that we perform, and that God will give us continual joy as we share the Gospel of Jesus Christ with everyone that comes through our doors at Holy Family!

Blessings,
Fr. John

"National Vocation Awareness Week will be celebrated in our country November 1-7, 2015. Please ask Our Lord for more dedicated, holy priests, deacons and consecrated men and women. May they be inspired by Jesus Christ, supported by our faith community, and respond generously to God's gift of a vocation."

PERPETUAL EUCHARISTIC ADORATION

When we come in adoration, let us do it to please Jesus and to sooth His sorrowful heart. Jesus revealed to St. Faustina: “My heart overflows with great mercy for souls...it is for them that the blood and water flowed from My heart as from the font overflowing with mercy. For them I dwell in the tabernacle as King of Mercy. I desire to bestow my graces upon souls, but they do not want to accept them. They have time for everything but no time to come to Me for graces.” Please visit our Adoration Chapel and consider your own individual hour. Call Tom Colabufo at 487-8377.

PRAYER CHAIN: Please call requests to Judy Shanley at 488-2487. For surgeries please contact two weeks in advance.

A FAMILY PERSPECTIVE:
 Anyone can be “saint” in front of strangers but the daily acts of mercy, making peace, forgiveness, listening and dying to oneself within the family are religious acts. Family Life is the turf of sanctity and parents lead the way.

BEREAVEMENT

Be strong and courageous, do not be afraid or tremble at them, for the Lord your God is the one who goes with you. He will not fail you or forsake you.

Grandparents who have received the blessing to see their children’s children are entrusted with a great responsibility – to transmit their life experience, their family history, the history of the community, of a people; to share wisdom with simplicity, and the faith itself – the most precious heritage! Happy is the family who has grandparents close by! A grandfather is a father twice over and a grandmother is a mother twice over.” (Pope Francis)

He was a man of God, an apostle of charity, a lover of the Eucharist. He saw in each person God Himself. He said “as you genuflect in front of the Blessed Sacrament, so we need to genuflect in front of each other, because Jesus is present, we are His temple.
